

Carter G. Woodson in the Cleveland Call and Post

edited by Daniel Kleven

updated 2023-10-29

1938

January 6, 1938. Negro history is irrevocably a part of America "Continued"

February 24, 1938. "Constructive opposition develops real leadership"

March 31, 1938. "A Great Crisis in Negro Affairs is Now Imminent"

December 15, 1938. "Urges Study Of Negro History To Further Truth In Education"

1943

August 14, 1943. "Democracy in Spite of Opposition"

October 23, 1943. "The Negro soldier"

November 6, 1943. "Patriotism"

December 4, 1943. "Independence"

1944

February 26, 1944. "The Negro Looks for Democracy"

May 6, 1944. "Tolerance and the Negro"

June 10, 1944. "Why Negroes Fight In This War"

August 5, 1944. "One and the Same Objective"

December 30, 1944. "Development of the Negro Community"

1945

February 10, 1945. "Which Shall It Be? Democracy or Empire"

May 26, 1945. "Our Way of Living"

1946

January 5, 1946. "Isolating Medievalism"

February 9, 1946. "Paying Taxes to Save Britain"

April 6, 1946. "The Deplorable State of the Nation"

May 11, 1946. "Politics corrupted by selfishness," page 4B [Note: missing—NewspaperArchive skips from 3B to 5B]

November 23, 1946. "Dangers of Political Leadership"

November 30, 1946. "Democracy Possible Only Through Brotherhood"

1947

February 1, 1947. "Democracy Possible Only Through Brotherhood"

February 15, 1947. "The Unfinished Task"

March 8, 1947. "Liberia needs help"

March 22, 1947. "Martyrs for Freedom"

April 26, 1947. "Groundwork Still a Necessity"